- Placing an ad for EWTN has never been simpler! Download our ready-to-insert bulletin ad, EWTN is Everywhere, by visiting our Resources page. Feel free to edit it to include your own local channel information!
- Looking for ways to help spread the word about EWTN? Place an announcement in your parish bulletin as the new program schedules become available. They are a handy reference for parishioners and a great way to invite non-viewers to learn more about what's upcoming on EWTN. You could even set up a table after Mass to draw attention to the latest issue of our schedule!
- Mother Angelica first began her evangelization efforts by writing little tracts or "mini-books." These little pamphlets continue to strengthen, challenge and offer relevant insight on the spiritual life. As Mother said, "Every person should be a missionary. We need to get so excited about our faith that we want to share it with our neighbors. The books and mini-books are mustard seeds. Every housewife, every businessman can be a missionary. Drop a book, drop a leaflet wherever you go. You plant the seed and then the Spirit will take over." Consider sharing these mini-books at a parish or community event along with EWTN promotional materials. Contact us at volunteers@ewtn.com for more information!
